THROUGH HER EYES Travel

Fall Is Upon Us and We Are Loving It

The Adventure Newsletter | Issue 04 | September 2026

It is officially fall and we are more excited than ever! This is the season we wait for all year: golden aspens, crisp mornings and plenty of road trips. In this issue you will find our full Colorado fall road trip, a few more fall drives worth planning and new videos to watch with your coffee.

Our Colorado Fall Road Trip

Four days, three nights and so much gold. We caught sunrise at Maroon Bells, camped two nights nearby, spent a day in Aspen, drove the Million Dollar Highway and ended in Telluride, our new favorite mountain town. And yes, it is Tira approved! The full 4 day road trip itinerary and a guide for every stop are on the blog.

Plan Your Own Colorado Fall Road Trip

Start with the full 4 day road trip itinerary, then dive into our guides to Maroon Bells with a dog, 1 day in Aspen, the Million Dollar Highway and 1 day in Telluride.

Planning your own trip? Find pet friendly stays near Maroon Bells and Aspen. You can also find stays in Ouray or up in Telluride's Mountain Village on Expedia, or browse Vrbo rentals in Ouray. The videos from this trip are in the works, so subscribe on YouTube to catch them first.

MORE FALL ROAD TRIPS WORTH PLANNING

Galena, Illinois and Dubuque, Iowa for river bluffs, brick streets and small town charm.

Watch the video, then read Galena in the Fall, Dubuque in the Fall and our 2 day fall weekend itinerary.

Wisconsin for a day trip packed with hikes, small towns and color. Read Wisconsin Fall Foliage Day Trip: 3 Best Stops. Booking a stay along the way? Vrbo and Expedia are the sites we use ourselves. Kentucky is new on the blog! Read our Kentucky road trip guide.

New on YouTube New episodes are live!

Sky Pond Hike: The Hardest Trail in Rocky Mountain National Park We've Ever Done. The waterfall scramble, the alpine lakes and every stop to catch our breath. Pair it with our Sky Pond hike guide.

Ouray Perimeter Trail, Crawford State Park and Black Canyon of the Gunnison. A dog friendly Colorado road trip with Tira leading the way. Read our Ouray Perimeter Trail guide.

Is Cottonwood Pass Worth the Stop? A quick look at the highest paved Continental Divide crossing in the US.

Get Your Fall Trip Planned

Grab our free printable packing checklists, and check out our Hiking Hub, Road Trip Essentials and Travel Resources pages for everything we actually pack and use. Road tripping with a pup? Start with our dog friendly road trip tips.

Until next time, and happy fall!

Sarah, Jam and Tira
Through Her Eyes Travel 🐾

Follow us for more adventures:
Instagram | YouTube | Pinterest | Facebook

© Through Her Eyes Travel. All rights reserved.